The more savorable account of the English harvests was generally anticipated, and its effect. therefore, upon the operations in breadstuffs on this side, was not marked; but it is dec. sive that there will be no demand, for the export of flour to England. The money market, both here and in England, notwithstanding large investments in Railroads, is overflowing; nor is there any probability that it will be otherwise for some time to

The subscription for the New-York and Erie Railroad goes on bravely, and it is now certain that the requisite aum of three millions will be obtained-this amount assures to the company the relinquishment of the lien which the State holds on the read for three millions advanced for its conatraction.

By the Southern mail, just arrived, at is officially announced that Lovi Woodbary is appointed Justice of the Supreme Court in the place of the lamested Story. As the appointment was to come from the Loco Foco ranks, perhaps that of Mr. Woodbury is as good a one as could be made. He is a man, not without talent, of considerable acquirements, and, placed on the Bench of the Supreme Court in a position which, it is now by common consent conceded, sets a man apart forever from politics, will, it is hoped, acquire the genius of the place and follow in the footsteps of his truly illustrious predecessor.

There is nothing newer, or later, from Mexico, or the "Seat of War."

Our city is all agog to-day with a publication I send you by this mail. It is undoubtedly genuine, but it only sees the light, probably, through some gross fraud It is a pamphlet of many pages, containing private letters written by Mr. Van Boren. his con John, B. F. Butler, Gov. Marey, Stephen Allen, James Gordon Bennett, C. W. Lawrence, and a host of other notabilities of the party, to Mr. Jesse Hoyt, the trusted agent of Mr. Van Burenhis operations in stocks, in bets, in office arrangements, and political manouvres and intrigues of all sorts. I have not time, nor indeed could it be matter. The Rio del Norte is our bounpossible, within the limits of a letter to make any dary line. From the Washington Union.

We understand that Mr. McLane's reception in England, public as well as private, has been most gratifying to him and complimentary to our Government and President, for after all, in spite of our own democracy, the statesmen of England choose to regard our Minister rather as an ambassador, representing the person of the Sovereign.

This is a strange paragraph for the leading organ of the party which claims to possess "all the democracy." Mr. McLane the representative of the Sovereign forsooth! Pray who is the Sovereign in this country? THE PAOPLE, of course, though the Union would fain make it appear that Mr. James K. Polk is. That doctrine may suit the Loco Foro and Virginia abstractionists, but it won't go down with the Whige.

THE TELEGRAPH-BETWEEN THE AT-LANTIC AND THE MISSISPIPPI &c. - The company organized for extending the Telegraph system between the eastern commercial cases and the Valley of the Mississippi, are proceeding actively in the accomplishment of their purpose. The Association, which is styled the "Atlantic, Lake and Mississippi Telegraph Compa uv." at a recent meeting in the city of Rochester, elected Henry R Selden, Presilent; Henry O Reilly, Secretary; and Geo. Dawson, Treasurer: And it is stated that, at the same meeting, a contract was matured, and the med's provided for extending the Telegraph to Harrisburgh before the first of December.

The remainder of the first section, reachng to the Ohio river at Patsburgh and Wheeling, to be completed early in the spring. The progress of the route thence westward to the Lakes and the Mississippr, will be accelerated to the greatest practicable extent.

The "New York and Boffalo Telegraph Line," is also in train of active executron. From the materials advertised for, it seems that the contractors (Messrs Faxton, Butterfield & Co. of Unica.) are endeavoring to complete the line from N. York, via Albany and Troy, to Boffato, before January next. And it is proper to add that the section of Telegraph which was put in operation during the State Fair. between Utica and Little Fatts, is part of this contract, and managed under their direction. It is but just to add, that the mat ter worked well, and to the satisfaction of the many visitors —[Argus.
